

Mabel Chu

Chief Operating Officer & Managing Director
(Singapore)

Mabel is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day management and governance of the Investment Manager, including such areas as legal and compliance review, accounting and capital management, risk management, governance, information management systems, investor reporting, liaising with the fund administrator, monitoring investment processes, establishing tax-efficient and compliant investment structures and general affairs relating to the Fund and the Investment Manager. Mabel joined Standard Chartered in 2005 as head of the legal team for Mergers and Acquisitions in Asia Pacific and later joined Standard Chartered's Principal Finance team as a Director. Prior to joining the Bank, Mabel worked with the law firm Slaughter and May as an attorney, GE (Power Systems) as associate counsel for Asia Pacific and HSBC where she served as legal counsel, Asia Pacific. Mabel has a wealth of experience in strategic investments and private equity acquisitions including HSBC's investment in Ping An Insurance and Bank of Communications as well as Standard Chartered's investment in China Bohai Bank, the public takeover of Hsinchu Bank in Taiwan, and investment in Meiya Power Company.

Mabel is qualified to practice law in England, Wales and Hong Kong. She holds a Bachelor of Laws degree from King's College, University of London.